

PA CareerLink Philadelphia

PA CareerLink Philadelphia can help you search job openings, build skills, and explore careers. PA CareerLink Philadelphia has career centers in West Philadelphia, Northwest Philadelphia, Center City, and North Philadelphia. For more information, call 1-800-750-5627 or go to www.pacareerlinkphl.org

ApprenticeshipPHL

ApprenticeshipPHL is a resource for finding apprenticeships. They can help you find an apprenticeship in a trade, healthcare, or information technology. For more information, email info@apprenticeshipphl.org.

Congreso de Latinos

Congreso aims to economically empower Philadelphia Latinos. Congreso has work readiness programs and workshops for job seekers. They have a Child Development Associate training program for those interested in a career in the childcare sector, and a Licensed Tractor Trailer Driver Certificate Program. For more information, call 215-763-8870 or email info@congreso.net.

Temple University

Every month, Temple University offers free employment readiness workshops. Topics include interviewing skills, office etiquette and more. For more information, call 215-204-0677 or email mike.robinson@temple.edu

JEVS Human Services

JEVS Human Services provides skills development, job readiness, and career services. JEVS has a Center for New Americans, which helps refugees and asylees with the job search. For more information, call 215-854-1800.

District 119C Training & Upgrading Fund

The District 1199C Training & Upgrading Fund provides access to careers in healthcare and human services through education, training, and work-based

For help navigating these resources, contact the Office of Immigrant Affairs at oia@phila.gov or call 215-686-4412 learning. They also offer ESL classes that combine learning English and healthcare work training. For more information, call 215-568-2220.

The Welcoming Center

The Welcoming Center can help you find and apply to jobs that suit your skills and experience. They also offer workshops on the American workplace, resume writing, and interviewing. If you are a foreign-educated professional seeking professional employment in the U.S., the Welcoming Center has a program for international professionals. For more information, call 215-557-2626.

Urban League of Philadelphia

The Urban League of Philadelphia aims to empower the African American community in Philadelphia and has a Career Center that offers help to job seekers. All services are available free to participants who have completed the Orientation Session, offered every Monday. For more information, call 215-985-3220, ext.210 or email careercenter@urbanleaguephila.org.

Philadelphia Opportunities Industrialization Center (OIC)

Philadelphia OIC works to provide opportunities to job seekers and offers support with education, training, and job placement. Opportunities include hospitality job training, construction job training, and bank job training. For more information, call 215-236-7700.